GUJARAT LAND GRABBING (PROHIBITION ACT)

647 land-grabbing cases are under probe, 16 FIRs filed, says Govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GANDHINAGAR, JANUARY 22

AFTER THE enactment of the Gujarat Land Grabbing (Prohibition Act), 647 cases of alleged land-grabbing are under investigation with FIRs filed in 16 of them, said Additional Chief Secretary (Home) Pankaj Kumar, while addressing a press conference in the presence of Chief Minister Vijay Rupani and Minister of State for Home Pradeepsinh Jadeja.

The press conference, organised to release certain information related to the home department in the state, was attended by Chief Principal Secretary to the CM K Kailashnathan, Director General of Police Ashish Bhatia and Director of Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB) Keshav Kumar.

Pankaj Kumar said that to check land-grabbing in the state, the state government has enacted the Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act in the previous assembly session. He added that so far, 605 applications of land grabbing were received by different collectors who have initiated suo motu proceedings in 42 cases.

"Investigations are on in the cases and state government is monitoring the same. Sixteen FIRs have been registered against 34 land-grabbers," Kumar said adding that the total land in the cases will be around 1.35 lakh square metre, worth Rs 220 crore as per jantri rates (ready reckoner of land prices in different parts of the state).

DGP Bhatia provided details about cases registered under the amended Prevention of Anti-Social Act (PASA) and Gujarat Control of Terrorism and Organised Crime (GCTOC) Act. He said that categories of cyber crime, gambling, money lending and sexual harassment have been added to the amended Act. Till December 2020, 1,247 people, including 90 bootleggers, 15 money lenders, 15 accused of sexual harassment and nine of cyber crime, were behind bars under PASA.

About cases under GCTOC, Bhatia said police have so far registered 11 cases and more than 100 accused are in jail. He also added that many proposals of the GCTOC are under consideration against criminals indulging in extortion, supari killing and economic offences. He said police has also launched a campaign to nab more than 20,000 criminals absconding in different cases.

Saying that law and order is a pre-condition of development, Rupani said the priority of his government is to give a sense of peace and security to the people by giving a free hand to the police department. Referring to the Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act, Rupani said that the actual deterrence against the illegal activity will come 6-7 months later when the arrested accused will be convicted and sent to jail.

He also said that the Gujarat police was planning to introduce body camera for police personnel. "In coming days, body cameras will be attached to police. We will start it from traffic police so that, behavior towards public can be viewed centrally. The tender is in final stage... Police's behavior will come under control. It will also benefit police because on many occasions fake complaints are lodged against police," he said adding there will be one cyber police station in each district soon.

RR Cell abolished

Rupani, on Friday, declared to abolish the Rapid Response Cell (RR Cell) attached with the concerned range IG/DIG in the state. Making the announcement, the CM said, "The RR Cell practice was functional since 1995. It is being abolished from today. (We are) strengthening the Superintendent of Police so that they can work (more) in the district."

"We also want to give out a message to police that it can never be tolerated that the protector turns into a tormentor. And we are trying to give a message that they stay away from such things. It is a basic requirement that policemen do not align with criminals..." Rupani said.

Asked about the reason for abolishing the RR Cell, Rupani said, "The role of RR Cell was to accompany the DIG/IG for an operation. Now, with the use of technology, the utility of RR Cell has decreased... The IG/DIG are always there above the district superintendent so, there is no question of anybody getting unfettered power." There are eight police range in Gujarat and each range is being headed by an IPS officer of DIG or IG rank. Each Range IG/DIG has an RR Cell of around 10-15 police personnel to assist him. The staff of RR Cells will be merged with the district police concerned.

Hindu Maha Sabha supports Tiranga Yatra by PAAS in Surat against farm laws

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, JANUARY 22

THE AKHIL Bharitya Hindu Maha Sabha (ABHMS) on Friday extended support to the Tiranga Yatra to be taken out by the Patidar Anamat Andolan Samithi (PAAS) in Surat on January 26, demanding the withdrawal of the recently enacted farm bills and withdrawal of police cases against PAAS members.

ABHMS state president JT Patel said in a press release that the Sabha was supporting the PAAS demands and their Tiranga yatra to be taken out in Varachha.

PAAS co-convenor of Surat, Dharmik Malaviya, said, "We have applied for police permission for the rally on January 15... They are yet to reply. We have filed a petition with the Gujarat High Court for organising a Tiranga rally in Surat following all Covid guidelines on January 26... the matter will be heard on Monday (January 25)."

He added that PAAS has submitted photographs and news coverage rallies of BJP leaders organising rallies and meetings along with the petition. "We have sought permission for 200 people in the rally that will begin from Shahid Chowk at Sarthana and culminate at Sardar Patel statue at Varachha Mini Hira bazaar," he said.

7-yr-old girl missing in Morbi was raped, murdered, say police

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
RAJKOT, JANUARY 22

A BODY of a seven-year-old girl — daughter of a migrant worker couple — who went missing from the premises of a ceramic factory in Morbi, was found buried at a deserted place near the factory, police said on Friday, claiming that she was kidnapped, raped and bludgeoned to death.

"The inquest panchnama and report of primary post-mortem conducted at the government hospital in Morbi prima facie indicate that the girl was raped before she was hit on the head and murdered... To obtain conclusive evidence, we have sent her body to Rajkot for a forensic postmortem," Subodh Odedra, Superintendent of Police, Morbi, told The Indian Express.

The daughter of a migrant worker couple from Madhya Pradesh, the girl went missing on Monday while she was playing on the premises of the factory where her parents were working. After searching for her whole night, the girl's parents had approached police the next day and police registered a case of kidnapping.

"While our teams were searching for the girl, we got an alert on Thursday that a body was recently buried in a deserted place near the ceramic factory. We exhumed the body and the girl's father identified it," Odedra added.

The SP said that after the recovery of the body and prima facie conclusion that the girl was raped, Indian Penal Code Section 302 (murder) and 376 (rape) and sections of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act have been added in the case originally registered under IPC Section 363 (kidnapping).

"We are questioning a few suspects and analysing CCTV footage recovered from nearby places," Odedra said adding no one was arrested till Friday evening.

Police are suspecting the involvement of someone known to the girl, an officer of Morbi police said, adding, "The assailant would have been from the same factory where the girl's parents are working. We have questioned around 70 persons from the factory... we are questioning a few of them further."
